Dear Parents/Carers

March Madness Competition

Read Every Day in March

As you are aware we have mentioned a reading competition on our World Book day letter that will take place in March, starting on Sunday 1st March.

We are organising a March Madness reading competition to promote the love of reading. The children will be competing against one another to see who can read every day (including weekends) and complete two book reports in Class 1, three book reports in Class 2 and four book reports in class 3 weekly.

In class 1 children will need to read 5 minutes every day, in class 2 children will need to read 10 minutes and in class 3 children will need to read 15 minutes every day.

We are asking parents to sign their children's reading diary daily- no back dating please ☺- to prove that they have read for the expected length of time.

Each day in the diary we'll need to see the title of the book –chosen from home, school or the library AND the signature.

The children will also have to complete book reports on different books or for the older children on different chapters. These will have to be handed in by the Friday of each week, dated and signed by the parents.

Class teachers will be signing the children's diaries daily- this will help us count up the amount of times each child has read. We will tally the signatures and announce the winners in assembly on Wednesday 1st April.

We will invite the winning children's parents to the assembly to celebrate their achievements. Prizes will include gifts cards, vouchers and souvenirs.

Thank you for your continuous support.
