5th December 2022

Dear Parents/Carers

Brilliant news! After a 3 year wait, nativity performances are taking place at Surfleet Primary School again!

Next week, Willow class will be performing "Hey Ewe" on Tuesday 13th December at 1.30pm and on Wednesday 14th December at 5.30pm. Doors will open 30 minutes beforehand for each performance and, if Santa can spare some elves, there may even be some refreshments on sale up to the start of the performances.

In order to ensure the evening performance runs smoothly and that all children will be fully prepared, we would like the children to stay in school after school on Wednesday 14th December and bring a pack up in for their tea.

This means you would not need to collect your children after school on that day until the performance is over. If you are happy for your children to stay, please give permission for this on the slip below. We think this will add some excitement to what will already be a memorable evening!

Please complete and return the slip below if you would like tickets to see the performance. There are a maximum of two tickets per family per performance at the moment, although extra tickets might be available nearer the time.

Please complete the slip below if you need to request extra tickets. The deadline for slips being returned is 9am on Friday 10th December

Tickets will not be available through the office. Tickets will be sent out once the reply slips have been completed and returned.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Kind regards

Miss A Bates
