

SURFLEET PRIMARY SCHOOL

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Week Ending – 24th May 2024

Work Hard. Be Kind. Achieve!

Rick Chipperfield "The best view comes after the hardest climb"

We start this last newsletter of the term by celebrating more achievement and endeavour. This time it is the Year 2s who have been amazing this week by completing their round of testing in a mature and confident manner. Of course, some of the children will have been a little nervous but they were able to regulate their emotions and focus on the task in hand – brilliant! Each child did their very best and were able to achieve exactly what we knew they could do. We are so lucky to have children who rise to a challenge even when this creates uncertainty. Thanks to all the staff and you, the parents, for ensuring this week was as normal as possible for our children.

As term draws to a close, I thought it would be good to check in on our reading council who have been busy over the last 6 weeks. I wonder what they have been up to...

Connie - I ask people first if they like thick books, medium books or picture books. Then I look at the shelves in the library and I see which area is the right one for them based on what they are looking for. Then they have a browse around and I help them find the right book.

Ella - I help to keep the library clean and tidy.

Jeffery - I promote reading by reading all around the school and talking lots about books.

Eila - We recommend books on what we have read to display on the 'Bookflix' board.

Bethany - We sort out the books in the library. We find books and put them in the right places.

Ugne - I am really happy to have the job as I can tell people about the books I like and see if they are interested in the same thing.

Rex - We help people with reading.

Simran - I think I am really lucky to have this job as I really like reading and this is the best job for me as it involves books and reading.

Well they certainly have been active in promoting a reading culture across our whole school! A big thank you from everyone for giving up their time for this worthwhile role.

Enjoy your half term break and we will see you for the final term of the year on June 3rd.
